MagnaChip Reaches Settlement with Engaged Capital, LLC

SEOUL, South Korea and SAN JOSE, Calif., May 27, 2016 — MagnaChip Semiconductor Corporation (“MagnaChip” or the “Company”) (NYSE: MX), a Korea-based designer and manufacturer of analog and mixed-signal semiconductor products, announced today that it has entered into a Settlement Agreement with Engaged Capital, LLC (“Engaged Capital”). Under the terms of the agreement, Camillo Martino and Melvin L. Keating will immediately join the Company as observers of the Company’s Board of Directors (the “Board”). In addition, the Company will nominate Mr. Martino for election to the Board at the Company’s 2016 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, together with six of MagnaChip’s incumbent directors, who will stand for reelection. Immediately after the 2016 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, the Board will appoint Mr. Keating as a director. Both Messrs. Martino and Keating will serve on the Board’s Strategic Review Committee upon becoming members of the Board.

“We welcome the addition of Camillo and Mel to the MagnaChip board. MagnaChip’s business continues to strengthen and over the last year, we have materially reduced operating costs and improved fab utilization. The board looks forward to leveraging both Camillo and Mel’s combined experience managing semiconductor businesses as we work to continue to enhance the value of MagnaChip for our shareholders,” stated Doug Norby, Chairman of the Board of MagnaChip Corporation.

“We were pleased to have been able to continue the constructive interaction we have enjoyed with the MagnaChip Board over the last year in adding Camillo and Mel as directors. As strong shareholder advocates and experienced semiconductor executives and dealmakers, we have confidence Camillo and Mel will work effectively with the rest of the board to optimize the value of MagnaChip for shareholders,” said Glenn W. Welling, Founder and CIO of Engaged Capital.

After the appointment of Mr. Keating to the Board following the 2016 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, the Board will be comprised of eight directors, each of whom is elected annually, and the Company agreed not to increase the size of the Board beyond ten directors during the term of the Settlement Agreement. The Company will present its director nominees in its definitive proxy materials, which will be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission in due course. Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, Engaged Capital has agreed to withdraw its notice of intent to nominate directors at the 2016 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, to vote all of its shares in favor of the Company’s nominees and, so long as Institutional Shareholder Services concurs, in favor of the Board’s recommendation related to certain ordinary business presented at the 2016 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. Engaged Capital has also agreed to a customary standstill provision.

MagnaChip’s 2016 Annual Meeting of Stockholders has not yet been scheduled. MagnaChip stockholders are not required to take any action at this time.
