Securities to be registered pursuant to Section 12(g) of the Act: None

† As disclosed in the registration statement on Form S-1 (No. 333-165467) relating to the registrant's initial public offering (the "Registration Statement"), all of the shares of common stock sold in such offering will be sold in the form of depository shares. Each depository share represents an ownership interest in one share of common stock. Approximately forty-five days after the effective date of the Registration Statement, each holder of depository shares will be credited with a number of shares of common stock equal to the number of depositary shares held by such holder on that date, and the depositary shares will be canceled. Until such cancellation of the depositary shares, holders of depositary shares will be entitled to all proportional rights and preferences of the shares of common stock underlying such depositary shares. Accordingly, application is made for listing of the common stock of the registrant, but such shares will not trade on the New York Stock Exchange until the depositary shares are canceled.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

On March 10, 2011, MagnaChip Semiconductor LLC converted to a Delaware corporation and was renamed MagnaChip Semiconductor Corporation. The registrant hereby expressly adopts this Form 8-A/A as its own for all purposes of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
